In Darkness. Surrounded by the bodies of the dead, increasingly weak from lack of food and water, Shorty begins to hallucinate. As he waits in darkness for a rescue that may never come, a mystical bridge seems to emerge between him and Haitian leader Toussaint L'Ouverture, uniting the two in their darkest suffering-and their hope.

In Darkness by Nick Lake - review | Books | The Guardian

On January 12, 2010, a massive, 7.0 earthquake struck Haiti, killing more than 160,000 people and devastating an already destitute country (source). When author Nick Lake heard about the earthquake, he knew he wanted to write a book inspired by the catastrophic event. As you might have guessed, In Darkness, published in 2012, is that book.
